

TUAREG RALLYE

18 - 26 march 2012

Alwin Oud and Mark Luijckx, together Rally Team Alwin, will participate in the Tuareg Rally 2012! A challenging rally of 8 days, from which 7 in Morocco and 1 in Spain.

In a setting with over 200 participating teams the rally crosses the spectacular landscape of the Atlas Mountains and the Sahara dessert.

More then 2500 kilometres off-road tracks over mountains, riverbeds, rocks and sand dunes. The rally will pass places as Almeria (Spain), Nador, Missouri and Merzouga.

It will take careful driving, perseverance, navigation skills, and off course a perfect car, the QT Wildcat DKR 500, to make this rally successful.

Service will be provided bij QT Services , constructor of the car , who will have a service truck and crew present during the rally.

Rally Team Alwin consists of driver Alwin Oud, and navigator Mark Luijckx. Both with many years off-road experience from which a lot in African countries like Morocco and Algerie. They have also gained some good results in the Dutch Championship Off-road racing 2011.
